FOREWORD

We have dreamed for a long time of collecting some of the highlights of our school years and combining them for later reminiscence. Several attempts have been made by groups to publish a year-book, but this is the first time any group has gone so far as to collect, prepare, and make possible such a publication.

The task has not been an easy one, but it has been fun. The helpful cooperation of so many of you, and especially the people who were so kind to and generous with us in the advertising field, have made the job both pleasant and possible. There will be many mistakes in this volume, but your friendly acceptance of THE SESPRI SCHOAN will overshadow these.

This, our first annual, is given to you with a feeling that we have added a little to the betterment of our school. The publication of this volume is the beginning of something that can grow into a fine and pleasurable activity as years go by. It is our sincere desire that the classes behind us will publish a better annual each year. Then this tiny spark we have kindled will grow into a warm and lasting flame of friendship that will bind us together till the end of time.

ALMA MATER

Your praises high we love to sing,
 Oh Seven Springs
The thought of you to our warm hearts
 What fondness brings!
Tho far we wander, tho many lands
 We roam,
We'll turn to you as loving children
 Turn toward home.

We love to honor your dear name,
 Oh Seven Springs Hi,
We'll e'er delight to spread your
 Fame to sea and sky.
We love your old walls the hills
 They crown, we love,
We love your dark majestic pines,
 The waving grove.

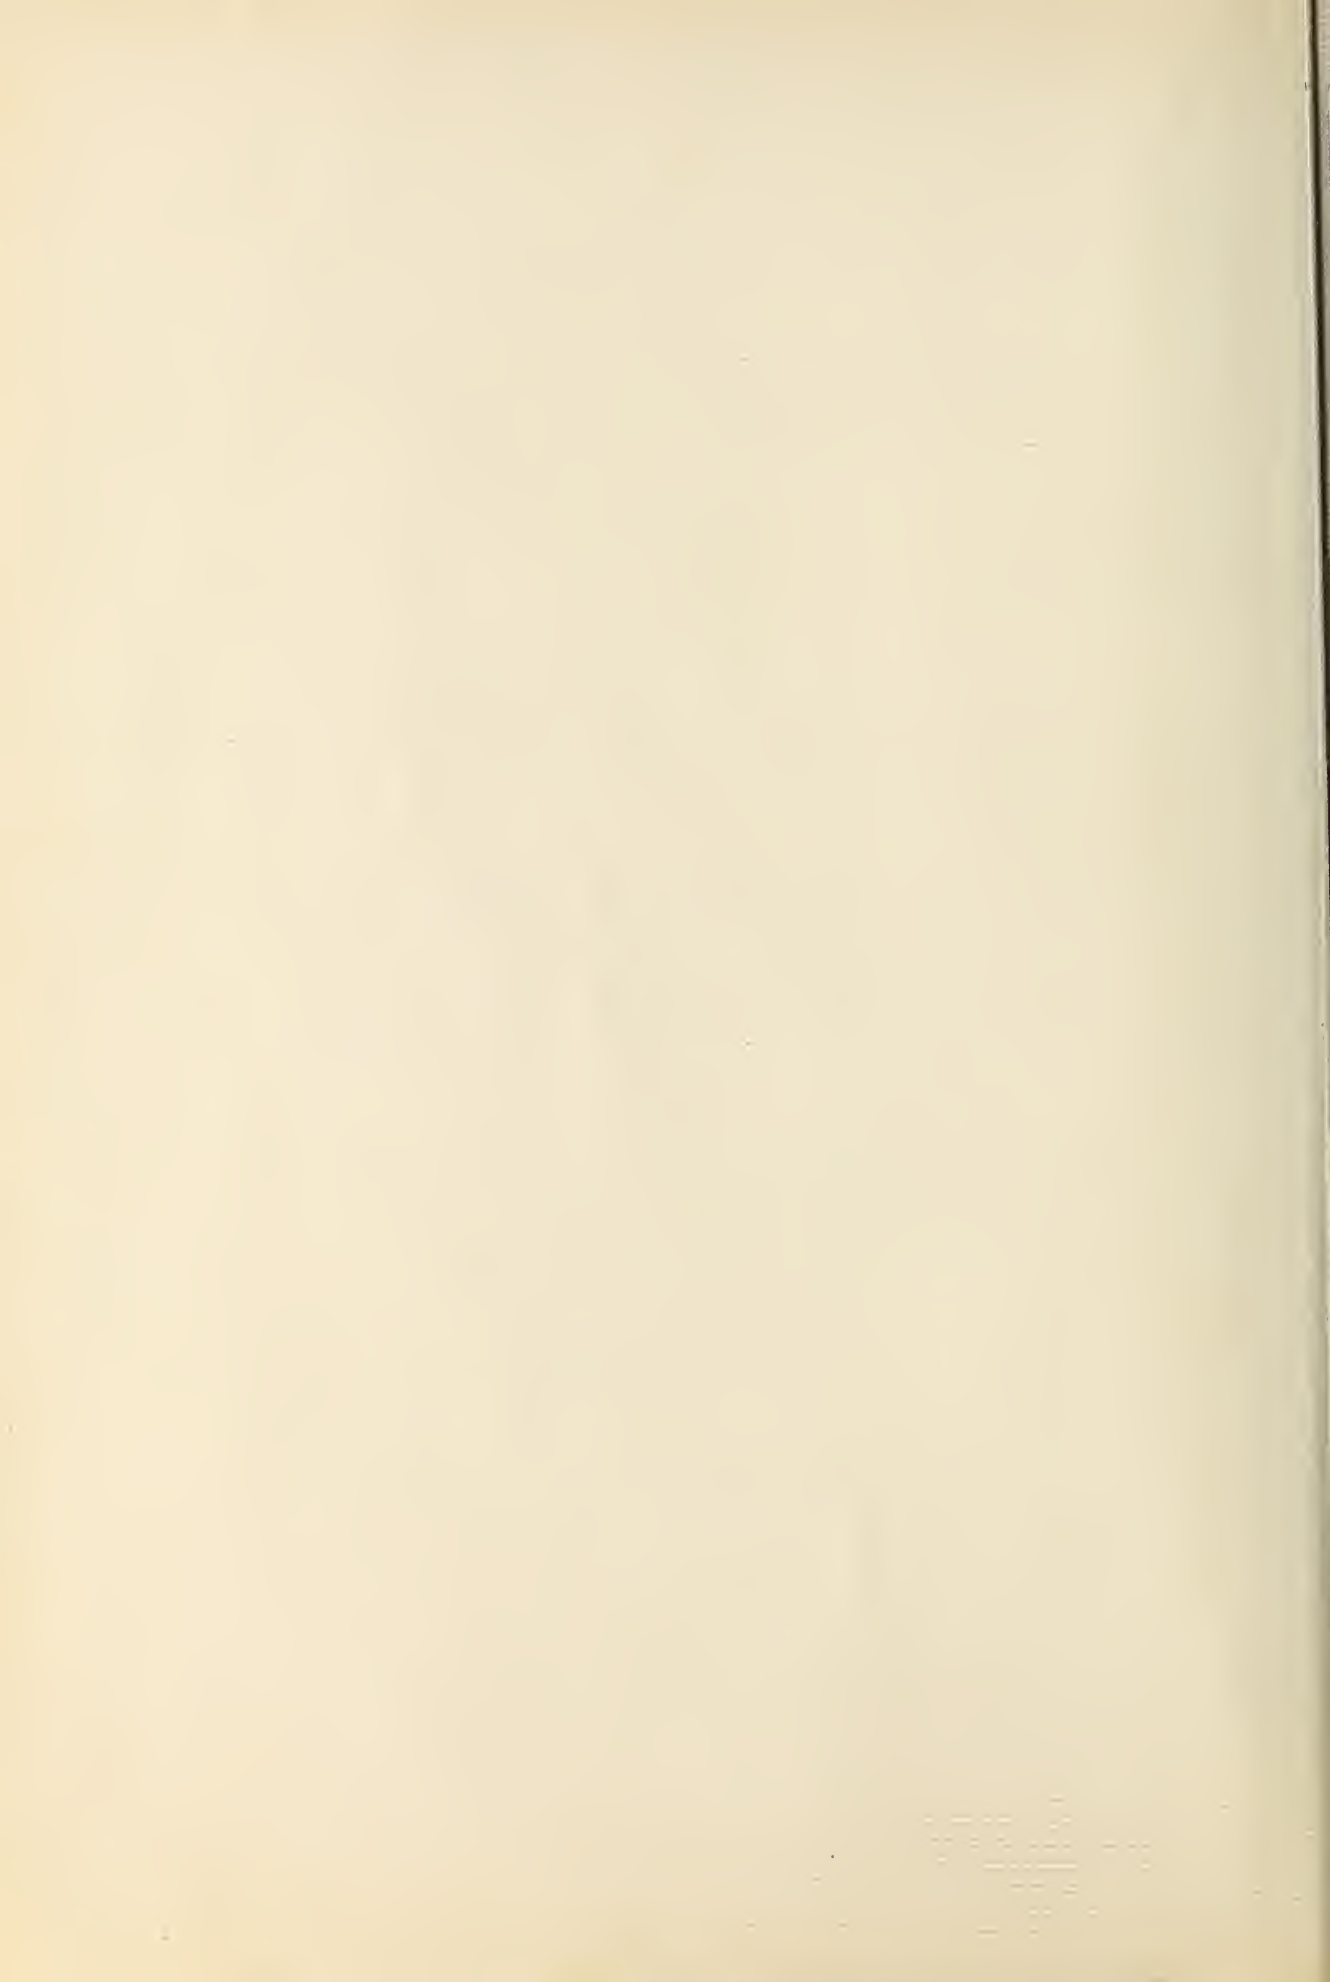

O Alma Mater, may your life,
 Through all the years,
Be radiant from your torch of truth
 And free from cares.
May God protect you and all your
 Labors bless
And spare you long for noble works
 Of usefulness.

THE SCHOOL HOUSE

Still sits the school-house by the road
Its steps worn down, betraying
The feet that, creeping slow to school,
Went storming out to playing.

Within the teachers' desks are seen,
Deep scarred by raps official;
The warping floors, the battered seats,
The jack-knife's carved initials.

Long years ago a winter sun
Shone o'er its walls at setting;
Now memories replace the glow,
Heart-filled, and true----unforgetting.

CLASS POEM

O we will sail on the open sea, out in the open air,
A band of Sailors together we'll be, wherever we may fare.
A banner we'll carry as we go forth, with service emblazoned thereon,
And we'll give our lives for this great cause, as we sail from day to day.

And we'll sail together, sailors true, we'll sail together this way,
We'll leave behind the cares we knew - they become things of the past,
With a song in our heart and a smile on our face, we'll sail the sea at last.

Ah class, my class, we'll stick together, thru rain and storm and gale,
Though many obstacles may bar our way, as over the sea we sail,
As we sail the open sea, there's one strong tie that will bind us all,
Tis the call to service, we'll heed it now; we do not mind the call.
United we'll stand throughout the years, for we have a race to run,
And now we'll sail on the open sea, for our day it has just begun.

CLASS HISTORY

Twelve year ago the class of '48 walked through the doors of various school buildings for the first time and optimistically demanded an education. Of the 38 First Graders who started here in 1936, only 6-Mark Herring, Hubert Head, Forrest Price, Ina Ruth Bartlett, Morgan Price, and Atheleen Williams have completed their entire 12 years of training in the Seven Springs School.

Ned Shivar, who started with the class left in the Fifth Grade to return in the Twelfth Grade. Kermit Wade joined the class during its second year, while Marvin Coker, Sam Price, and Bobbie J. Southerland came in during its fourth year. Allen Gurley was welcomed into the fold at the beginning of the Fifth Grade only to leave the same year and return again in the Seventh Grade. Joseph Outlaw and Chester Smith joined the class in the Sixth Grade, while Mollie Lane and Edward Sullivan transferred to the class in the Seventh Grade.

When we entered school as freshmen in 1944, we were a group of enthusiastic, eager, and ambitious students with never a doubt but that life would run smoothly for us. Our newest member, Marie Phillips, made us 34 strong. Mr. Gentry gave us Mr. E. F. Mumford for our home room teacher, who was a great help during the year.

Soon examinations were over and we receive our passport (report cards) for the Sophomore Class.

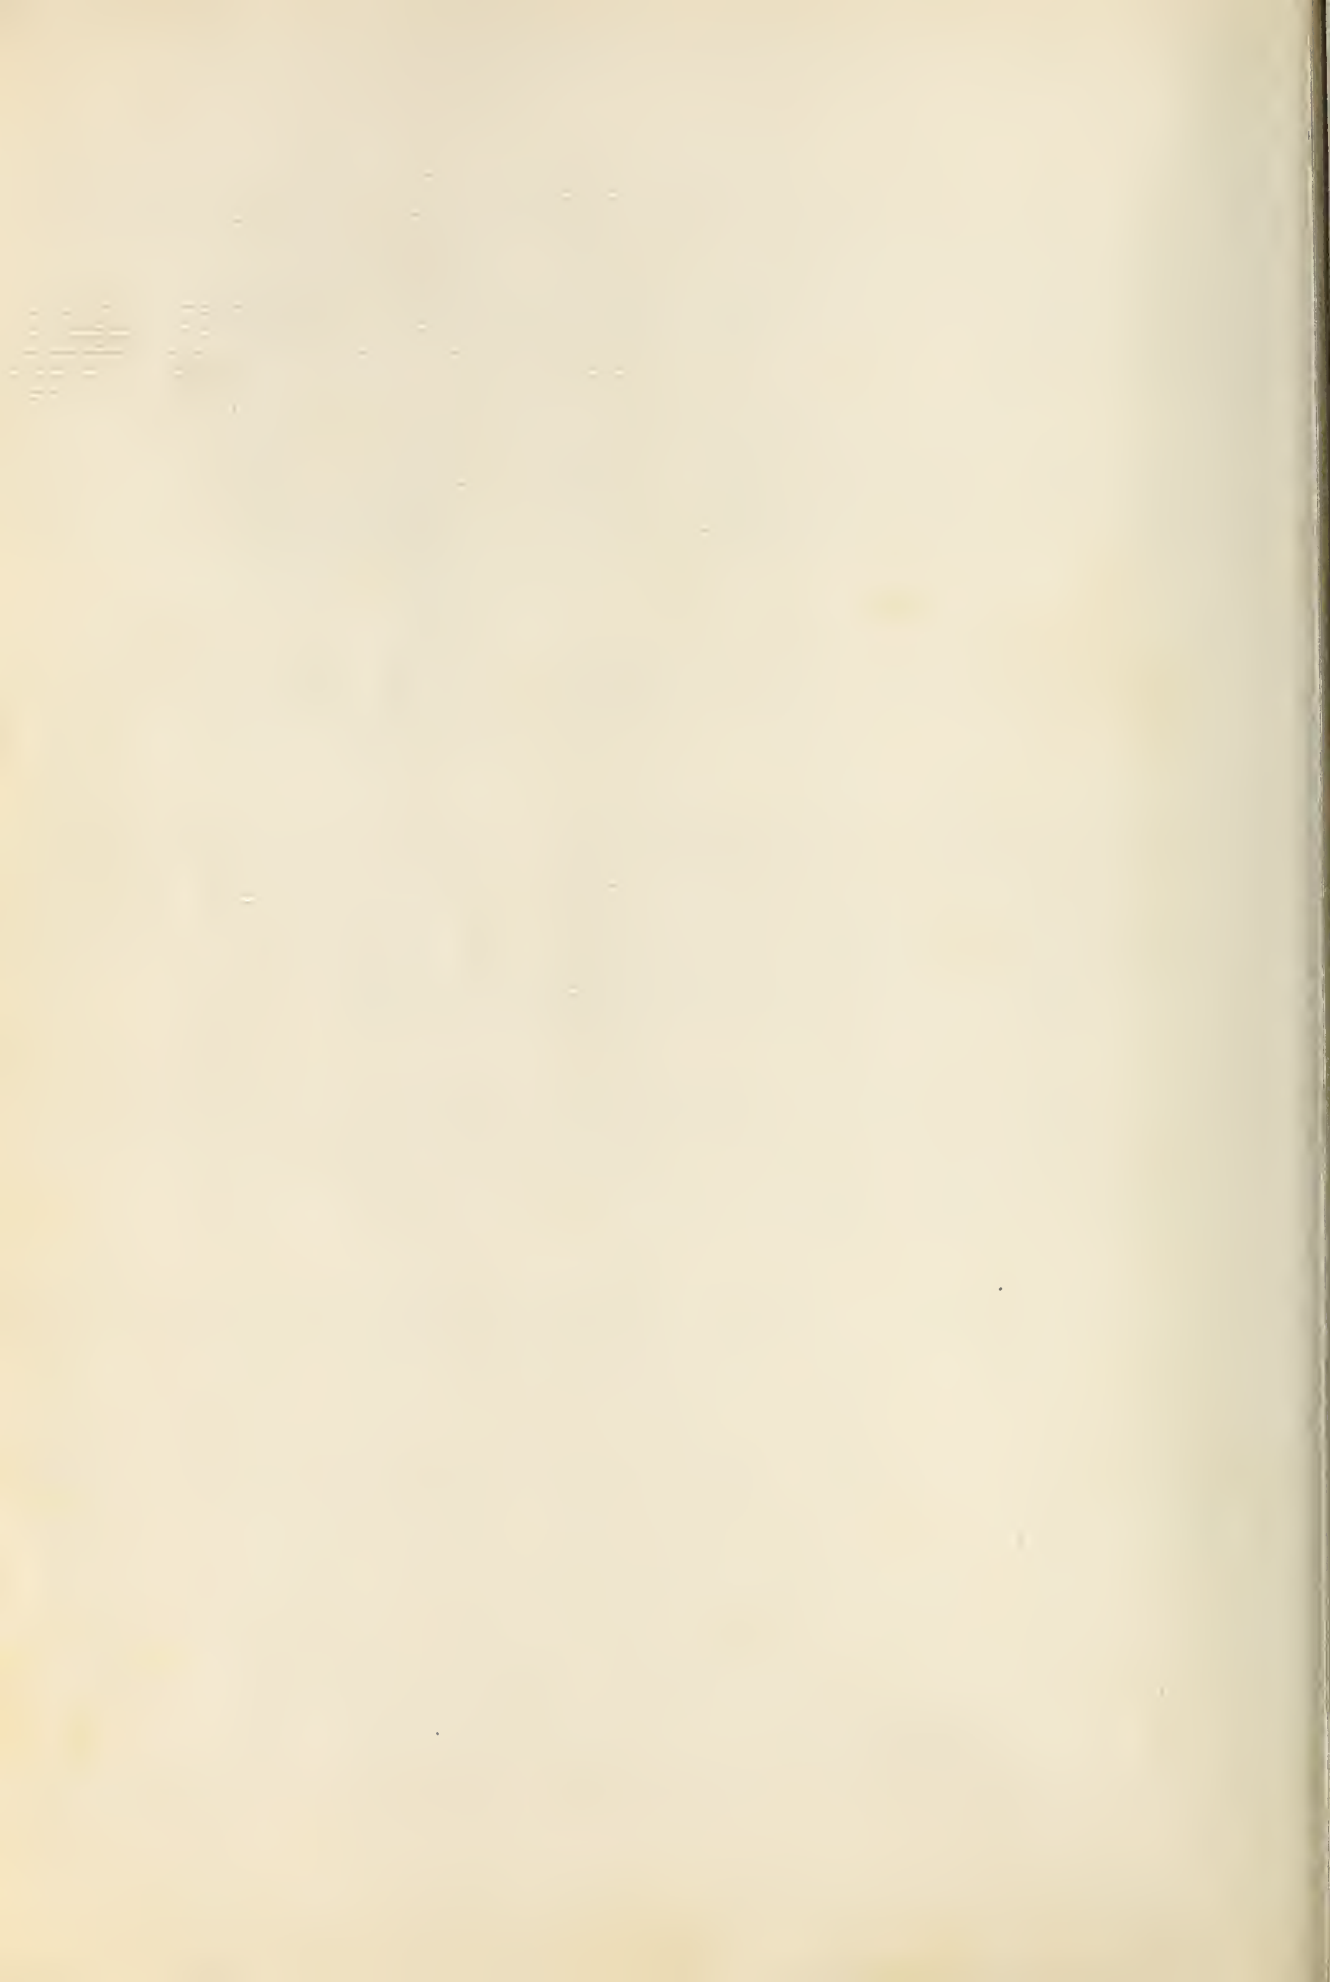

At the beginning of our second year in high school Mr. Moise was our new principal. Many of our members did not come back. Some got married, others moved away, some went to work. The number returning were 28. Miss Cathryn Creasman, our home room teacher, helped us in many ways to have an enjoyable and successful year. Mr. Moise gave us many pleasant moments in Glee Work and Music Appreciation.

In September 1946, we returned as upper classmen 20 Juniors. Aply guided and assisted by Mrs. Gertrude Scott, our sponsor, and our new principal Mr. J. O. Waters, a deep sense of responsibility developed in each member or we felt the need of big things to be done. Our officers this year were: Pres-Mark Herring, Vice-Pres.-Ina Ruth Bartlett, Secretary-Marie Phillips, Treasurer-Chester Smith.

Important events during the years were our class parties, our play "For Pete's Sake" and the Junior - Senior Banquet. We had an outstanding baseball team this year under the guidance of Mr. J. O. Waters and Mr. Ray Sisk. The stars of the team were Mark Herring, Chester Smith, Marvin Coker, Joseph Outlaw, Kermit Wade, and of our class.

September 1947, we entered school as seniors. Many changes had taken place since that Sept. three years ago. Our class had now been reduced to 18 Members. The class officers were: Pres. Allen Gurley, Vice Pres. Mark Herring, Sec. Louise L. Sanderson, Tres. Kermit Wade. We at once began to make plans for the year. The organization of a Staff to publish an annual was our first big job. We were not so positive about its success, but we went to work with a zest that was bound to get us what we wanted. We began our subscription and advertising campaigns. Allen Gurley was elected Editor-in-Chief of the annual, which we named, THE SESPRISCHOAN, Ina Ruth Bartlett as the efficient Business Manager was an invaluable help to the editor in making the publication a success.

All of the boys of the class worked hard to sell advertisements to help finance the costs of publication and when they had sold over $300.00 they thought they had done a fair job. We thought so, too. The annual was published and 125 copies sold.

We had our first social in the autumn, an enjoyable dance at Mr. Willie Griffin's Barn, with the Juniors as joint hosts and hostesses.

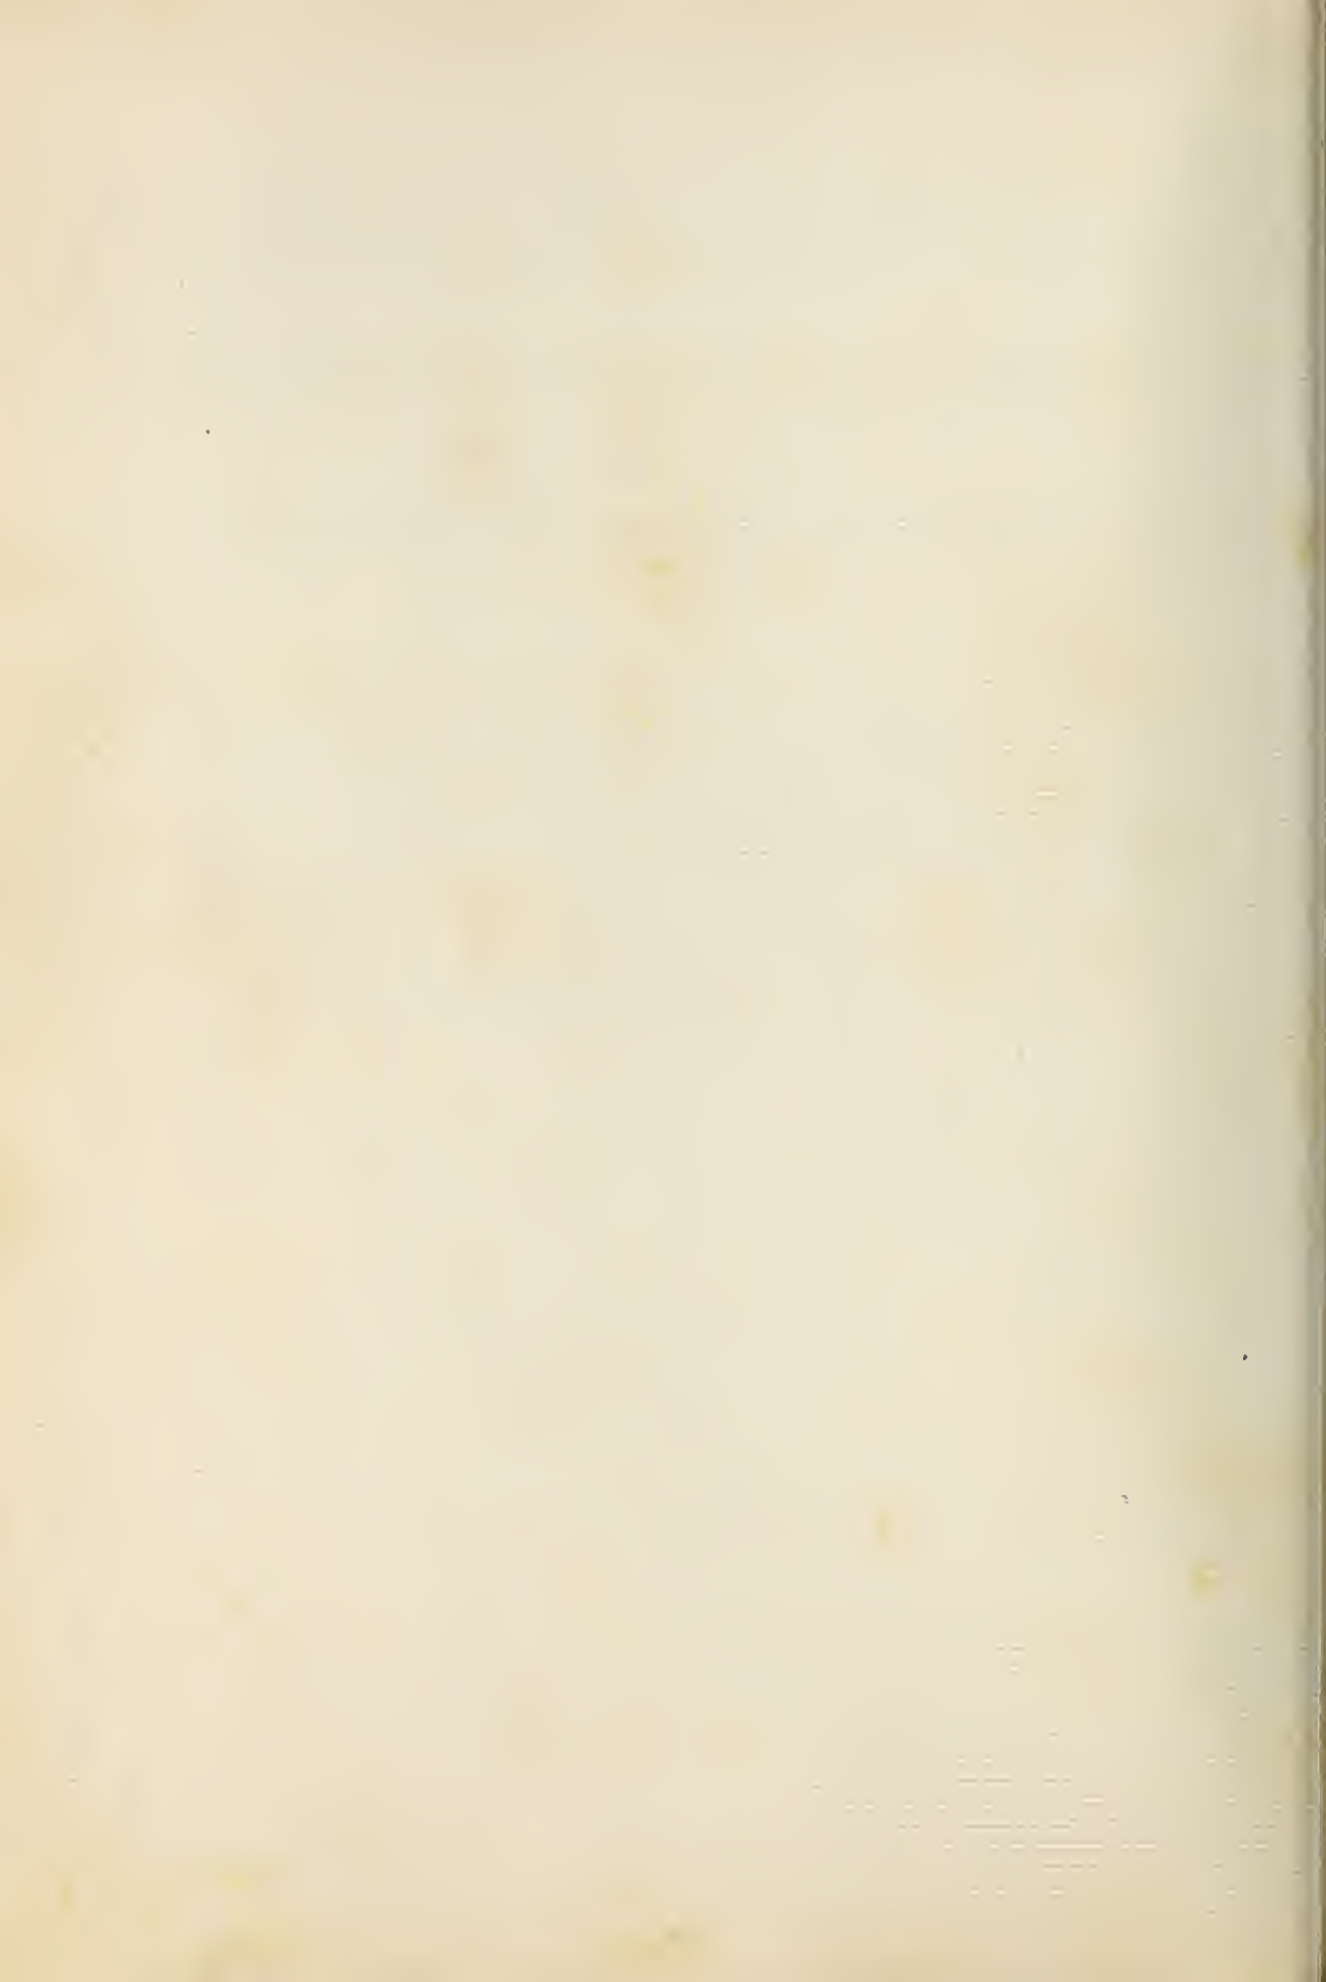

Ned Shivar joined us in January to make the 19th members of our class. Excitement! Our rings came in October.

Two of our members were married before Christmas----Sam Price to Margie Dixon; Louise Lane to Dute Sanderson----and we were so grateful that they did not leave us but continued to come to school with our group.

Our play this year was "Just Ducky" with twelve members of our class in the cast.

Mr. Waters, our principal again this year, and Mrs. Scott, our sponsor, kept us busy on something all of the year. with the rush of graduation and plans for commencement it was hard to realize that, our days at Seven Springs High School were over. Our Class had been loyal and stuck together in everything and it was hard to think that for the first time in 12 years we would disband and go our separate ways. This is what we had to face and so we graduated on May 31, 1948.

PROPHECY

As the train pulled in to the new brick terminal at Seven Springs, designed by that famous architect, Allen Gurley, who recently remodeled the nation's capital at La Grange, scores of people from the quaint little cross-road villages of Chicago, New York, Detroit and Waskington, poured out upon the main drag of the teeming metropolis of Seven Springs, newly developed port on the two-mile wide waterway of the Neuse River. There was much excitement! What was it all about? The world champion Seven Springs Thunderbolt Baseball Team of the Universal League, managed by that sterling coach, Mark Herring, was playing the bums from Brooklyn of the Sandlot League. We noticed one person in particular who was very nervous and excited about the game. It was none other than Marvin Coker, famous play-boy and gambler. He had a $5,000,000 bet on the game. Outside Mr. Coker's Limousine was being driven to the fifteen block garage of Forrest Price, president of Price Motors Inc., successor to the Ford Motor Co. The materials for all these imposing structures were furnished by the Red Bug Lumber Co. and Millworks of Mudpuddle, N. C; Hubert Head, president. Between Mudpuddle and Seven Springs lays the sprawling plantation of the Chester Smith Family. Mr. Smith is president of the N.C. Farm Bureau, and his wife is one of the most prominent social leaders of the state.

Now back to the city. At the Riverside Theatre, that famous singer, dancer, and comedian, Morgan Price, is appearing before thousands of worshipping fans. In his act he uses many valuable animals, trained dogs, horses, and etc. These are under the personal care of Dr. Joseph Outlaw, veterinarian. His discoveries in this field have astounded the world. He has changed the "jas-ak's" hee-haw, to haw-haw. In the audience at the theatre, is Bobbie Jean Southerland, member of the American Olympic Basketball Team. She is home on a visit after being voted the team's most valuable player. In the Newsreels we note that Dr. Ina Ruth Bartlett, who started her astonishing Medical Career as a Chemical Technologist, has astounded the world with another startling medical discovery.

We leave the gay theatre crowds now for a visit to the country. Across the Neuse, Kermit Wade is raising the finest corn in N. C. He is frequently seen hauling loads of it into the woods for what we do not know. Back on this side of the river we pay a visit to Sam J. Price. We find him in his cotton patch with his mule, Jenny, he has just sold Margie and bought Jenny. Back on the highway we head for other farms. Zoom--- what was that? Oh me, just Marie Phillips on her way to New York on one of her shopping sprees. In her spare time she is a model for the Powers Model Agency. Beside the road we see the entrance to the Williams Floral Gardens and Experiment Station, where Atheleen Williams carries on her wonderful work in floral arrangement and development of floral art. Nearby Edward Sullivan is cutting wood. His reputation for manly strength and brawn is famous throughout the country. On their lovely farm, Louise Sanderson and her husband live happy and content. Her home is decorated quite lovely, and she is an outstanding hostess. She has as her quest Mollie Lane; also Jossie, Janie, Jim, Jack, and Joe Gurley. Very small family. Mollie lives content in the sand hills with her sandy-haired husband. Ah--- We reach Mt. Olive. At the new department store we find Annie Price selling seat covers and safety pins. At the nearby Mt. Olive Pickle Plant, Ned Shivar is directing the sour operations.

CLASS WILL

We, the class of 1948, in sound mind and healthy physique, do make this our last will and testament. Each article here described is bequeathed severally to the below mentioned individuals according to the terms of this will and testament.

We hereby declare all previous promises to pay, wills or testaments made by this class as null and void.

We hereby appoint as sole administrator of this will, our principal, to administer this will and testament as he sees best.

I, Chester Smith, do bequeath my unique ballroom dancing ability to Norwood Mazingo.

We, Louise Sanderson and Sam Price, do hereby will our matrimonial success to Annie Doris Mazingo and Margaret Maxwell.

I, Marvin Coker, bequeath my muscular handsomeness to Nolan Hinson.

I, Mollie Lane, do bequeath my height to Edward Bizzell.

I, Morgan Price, do bequeath my musical voice to McKinley Griffin.

We, Atheleen Williams, Ina Ruth Bartlett, Annie Price, and Bobbie Jean Southerland, do bequeath our ability to play basketball to Ellen Bartlett and Mildred Williams, who kept their seats hot this year.

I, Allen Gurley, do bequeath my ability to get straight "A" averages to Roger Price.

We, Kermit Wade and Hubert Head, bequeath our ability to think up excuses for getting out of class to any person who can best use it.

I, Joseph Outlaw, leave my title, "Sleepy," to W.C. Sanderson.

I, Forest Price, do bequeath my ability to get my French by fair means or foul to Edward Bizzell.

I, Mark Herring Jr., leave my baseball ability to Bill Marshburn.

I, Ned Shivar, bequeath my ability to give the wrong answers in English and stand by them to A.J. Herring.

I, Bobbie Jean Southerland, do bequeath my girlish figure to Patty Gray Creech.

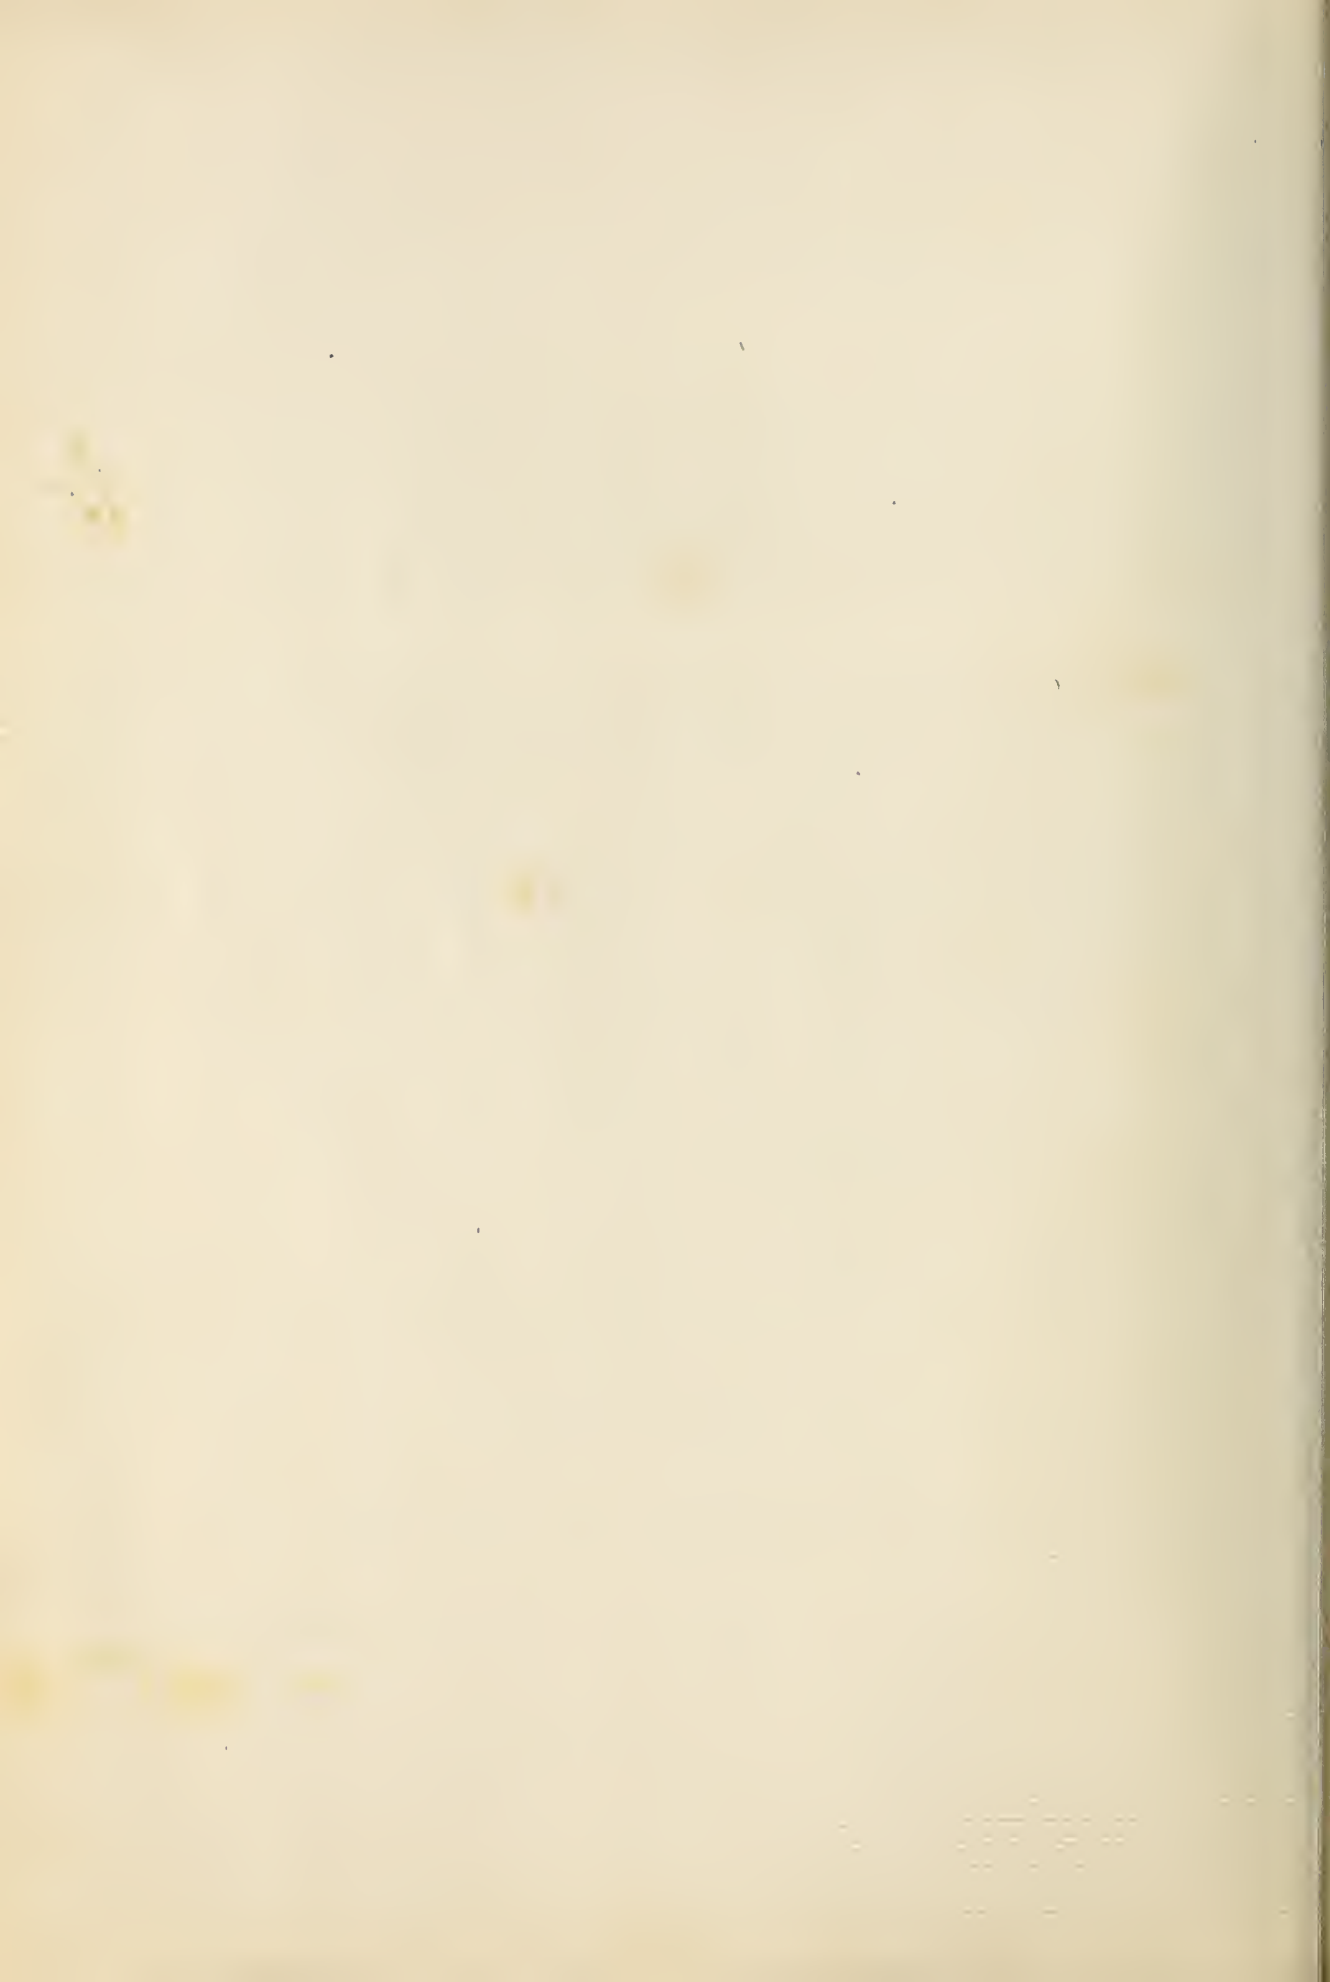

I, Ina Ruth Bartlett, leave all my notes and geometry papers to Donald Price and Linwood Hill, in case they need them next year.

I, Marie Phillips, do bequeath my ability to get along with the male population of this institution to Edna Gray Vinson and Blanche Williams.

I, Atheleen Williams, leave my cartooning ability to Vara Hines.

I, Edward Sullivan, leave all the slightly used chewing gum, stuck under seat No. 4 in the last row of the English Class to, Gordon Price Jr.

--Ina Ruth Bartlett

Dear Class of 1948,

I may not say exactly what I want to tell you; sometimes we cannot say those things we feel, especially when the feeling is so deep, but what I shall say is from the bottom of my heart.

First, I want to tell you how very grateful I am for the dedication honor. There is such a complexity of emotions that I feel when I think of how you slyly "put on^o over on me". I am so happy over this decision of yours, even though I know that I am not deserving; and when I think of so many other people who would be the logical nominees for such a distinction, I become even more grateful and appreciative. This gesture is one that shall be among the brightest highlights of my life. I shall always love you for it, and treasure this volume of THE SESPRI-SCHOAN forever.

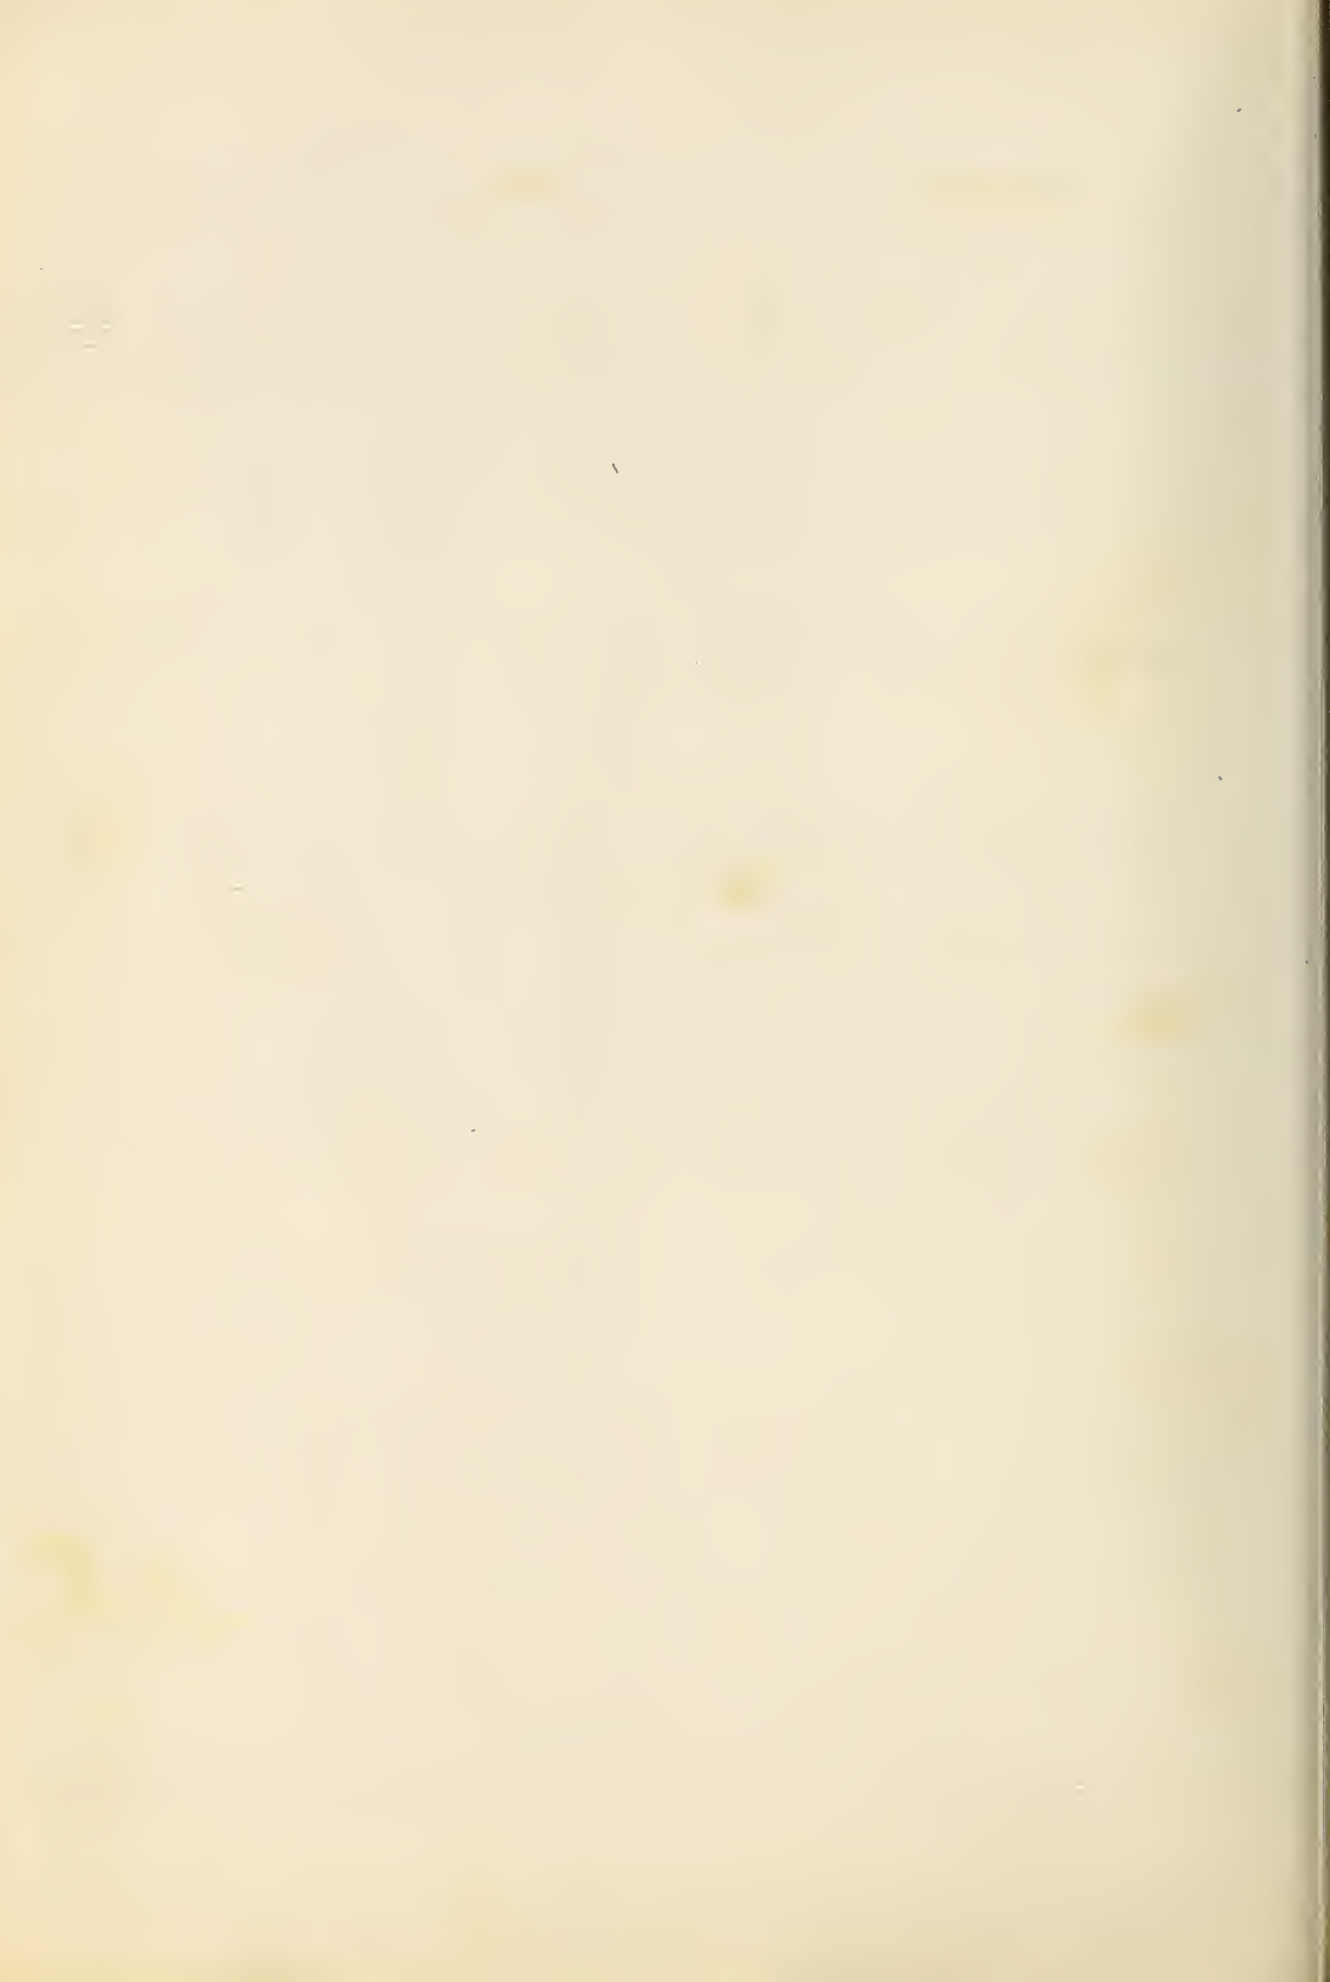

There are so many things that I want to say to each of you. I will not say that you are the best class I ever had. There has been no best class for me, but I do know that you are one of the dearest and best all-round classes I've ever had. Each of you has some good and useful trait that attracts you to people and makes them like you. Your genuine friendliness, good will, cheer, and sympathy for others make you an outstanding class. Cherish these qualities always, and don't ever let anyone or anything take them from you.

The great task of publishing this annual has proved that you'll succeed. It has also uncovered hidden potentialities. When I think of how all of you have worked to make it a success, I can't help but feel that you will make the same success of whatever you tackle in life. It has been so much fun working with you, and I believe we (you and I) have gained something that cannot be put on paper, and that no one else will understand----the endearing friendship that has bound us so closely together.

My dearest wish for you is that you shall always be happy and shall bring peace and happiness to all of those you meet.

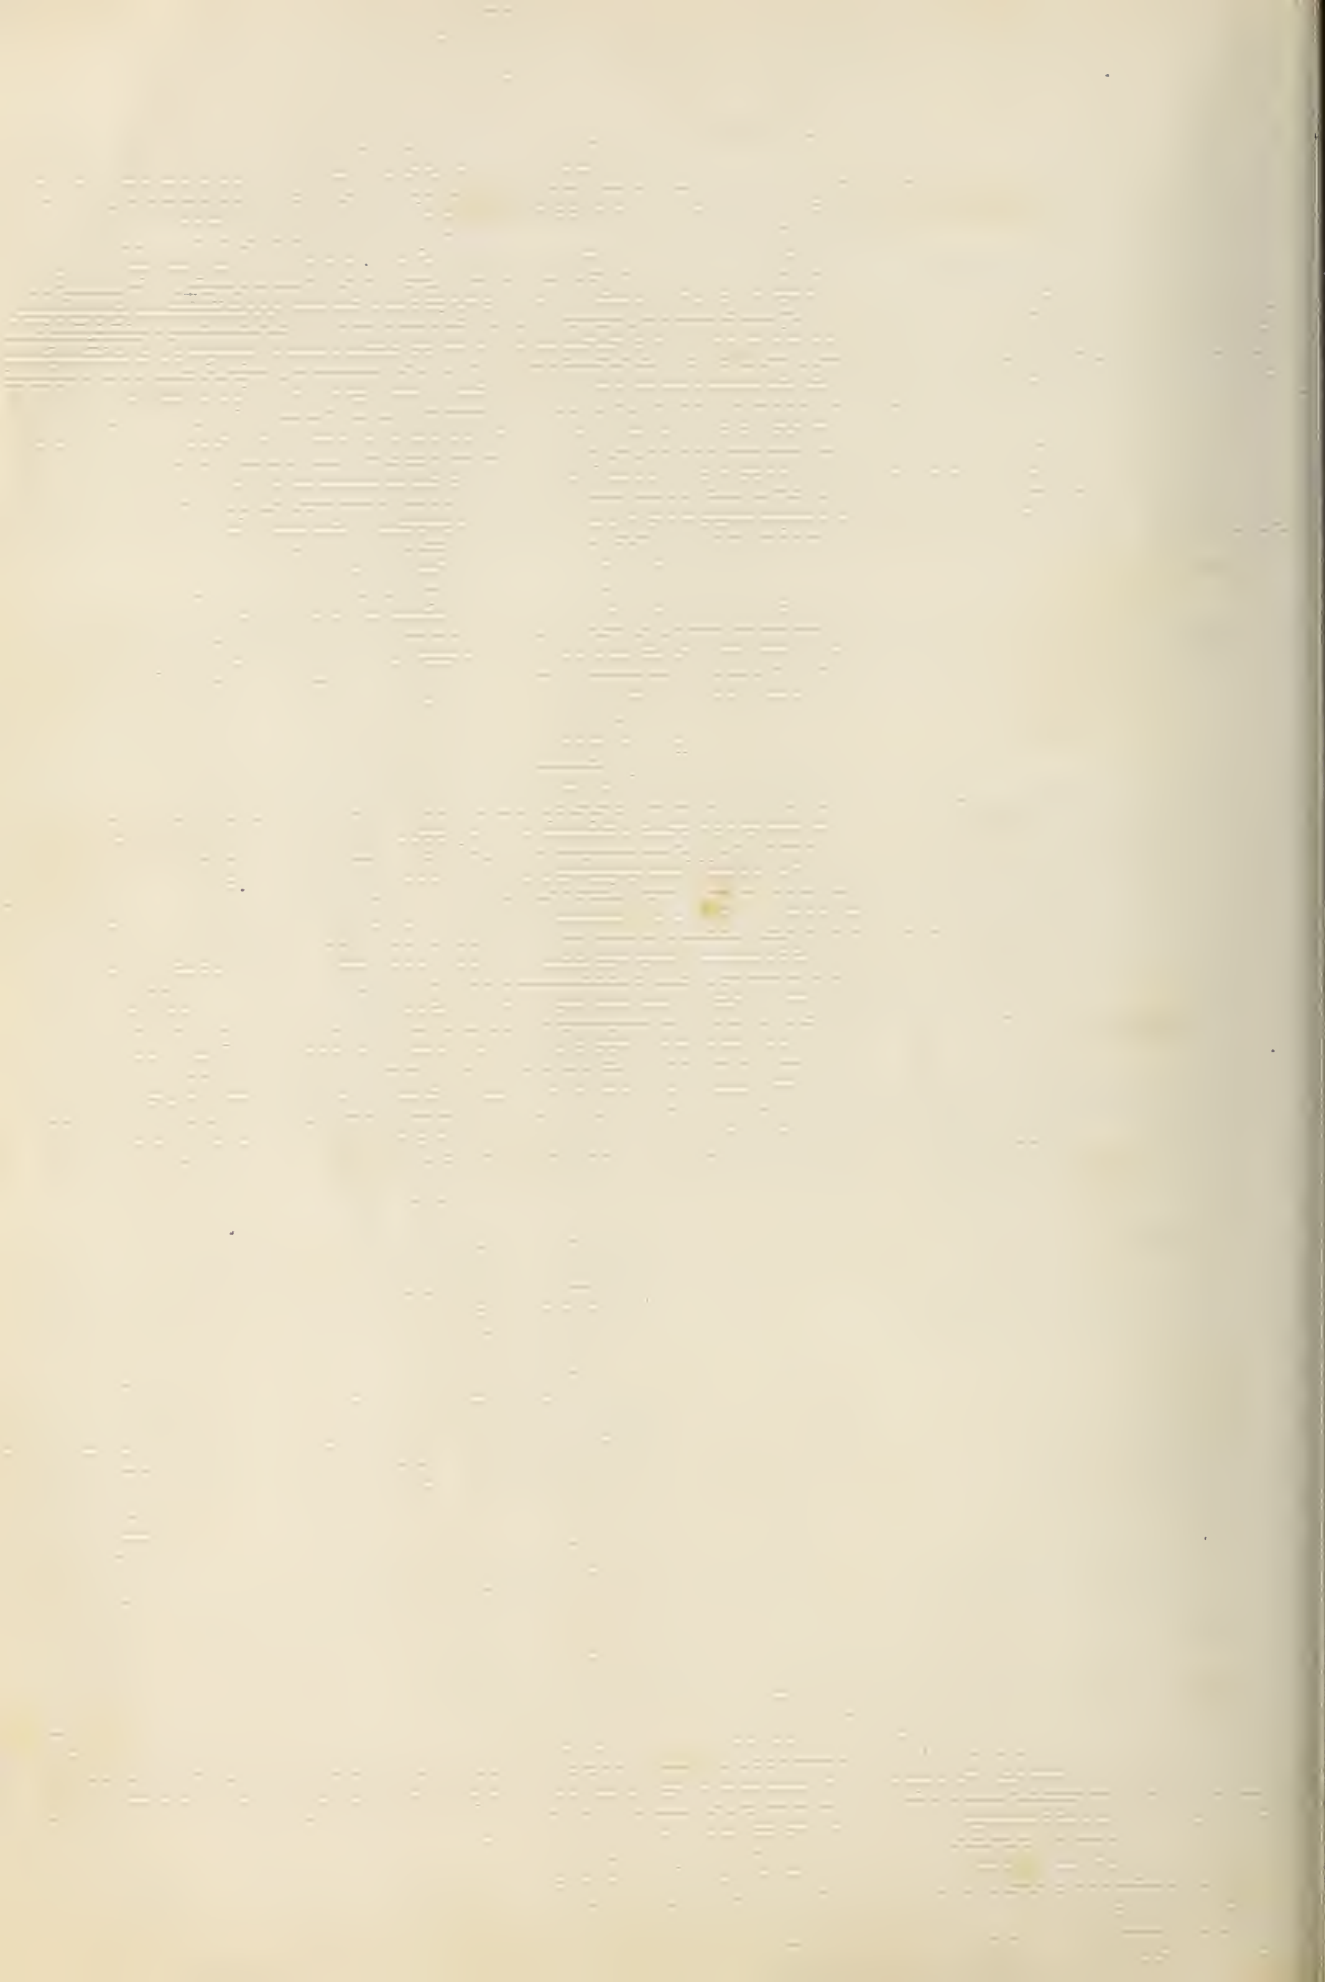

With true understanding and lasting love,

Gertrude Grimsley Scott.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S GROUP

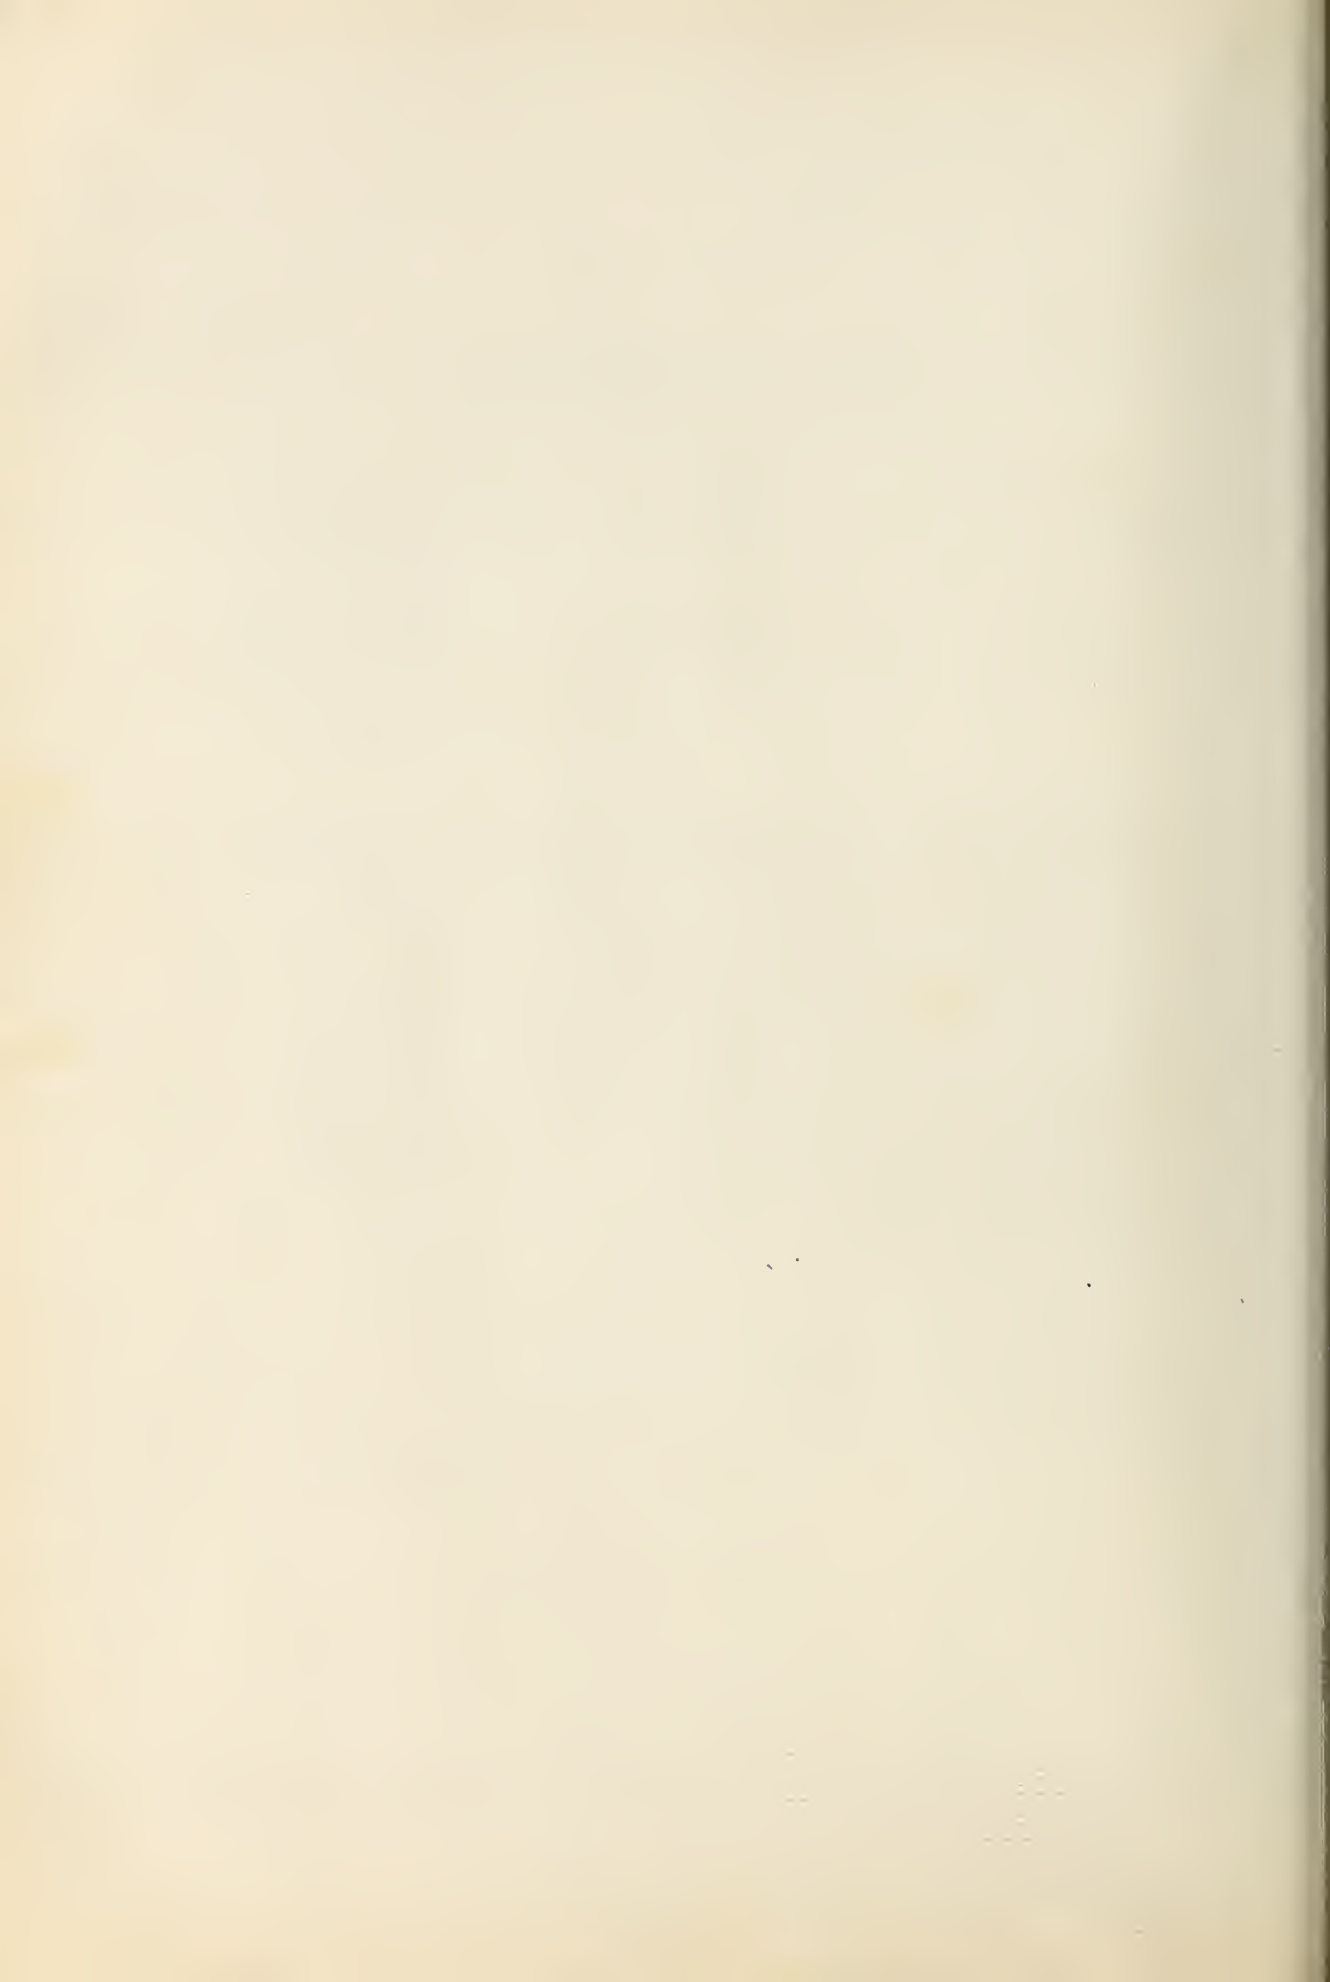

PRESIDENT-----EDWARD BIZZELL
VICE-PRESIDENT-----ALLEN GURLEY
SECRETARY-----MAMIE JEAN HERRING
TREASURER-----BILL PRICE

The "Happy Snappy Seven Springers" Young People's Group is an independent organization, created for the purpose of providing clean fun and entertainment for the teen-agers of the Seven Springs Community. Regular meetings are held every two weeks on Friday night; one social, and one business meeting every month. Chief activities are dancing, hayrides, weiner roasts, group trip to movies, swimming parties, and game playing. Each year at Christmas, a Christmas program is held. The members exchange presents at a Christmas tree, enjoy a generous supper, to which all members contribute some item, and go caroling through the village. As the remainder of the group sings on the sidewalk, two members present well filled baskets of fruit to all shut-ins of the village. This is the oldest and most popular of traditional group programs.

Each year in September the annual anniversary party is held. This party is usually formal. The club operates by efficient parliamentary procedure. The pres., vice pres., sec., and treas. are elected yearly. Program committees, refreshment committees, etc., function effectively. The original Young People's Group was organized about six years ago as a church group. Mrs. James Highsmith was the first counselor. The first meeting was held at the home of Jean Head. This group was not very successful, but sometime later the organization became independent, got permission from school authorities to use the Home Economics building for a meeting place, changed its name to the "Happy Snappy Seven Springers" and began operations on a large scale. Shortly afterward, Miss Cathryn Creasman and Miss Anne Beach became counselors of the group. The group enjoyed immense success for some time now and regular membership zoomed to fifty. These members attended the meetings regularly and the club was publically praised by Mr. R. S. Proctor, Superintendent of Wayne County Schools, and other prominent persons, as a valuable and outstanding organization. After several years of success, the club began to decline. Membership decreased and much interest was lost.

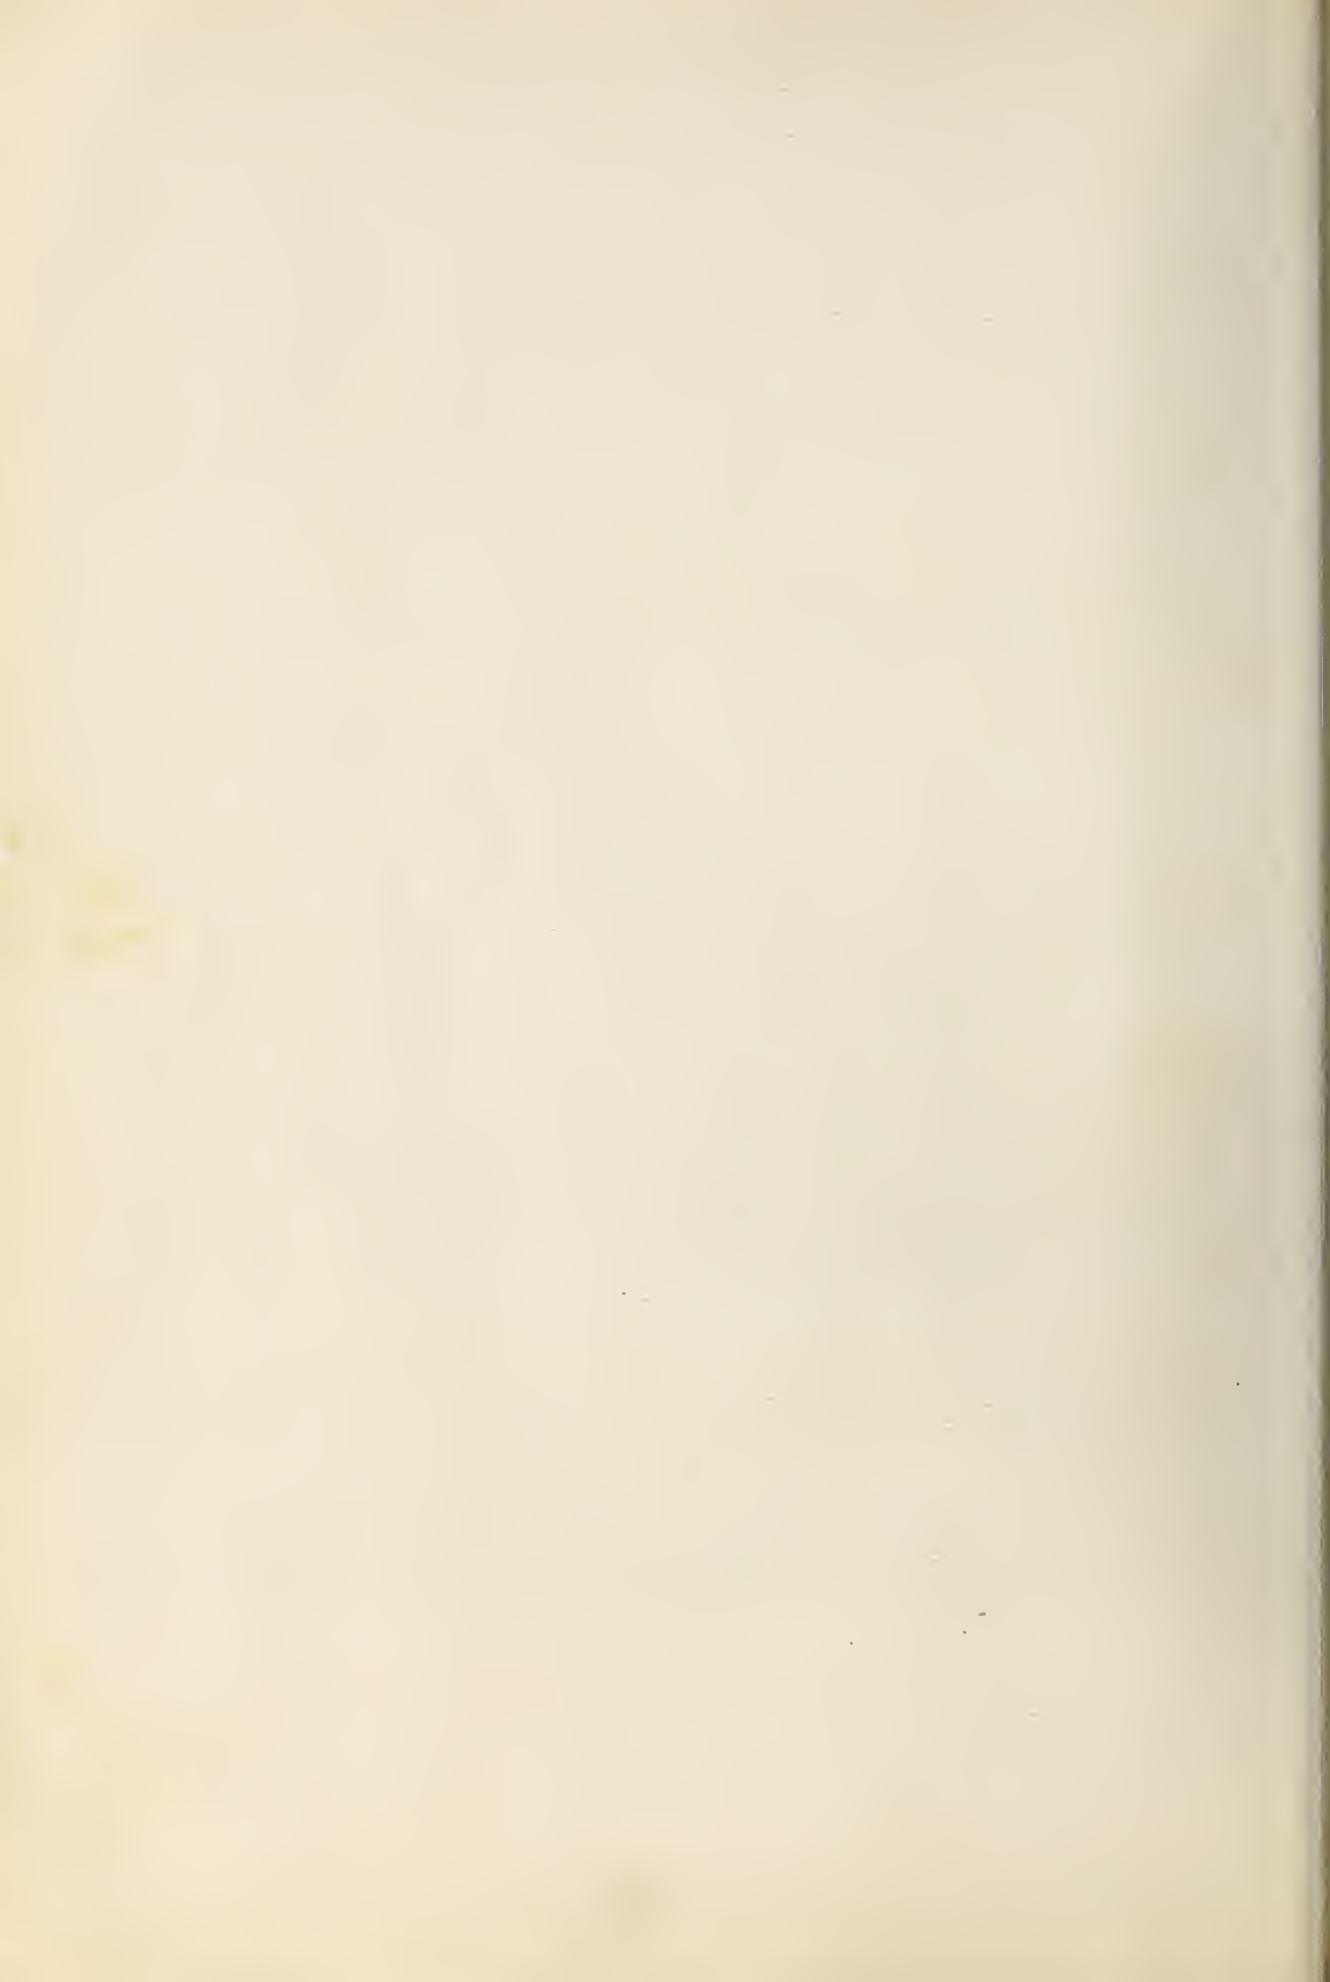

The club now has a membership of about twenty. Miss Arlene Sanderson, as sponsor of the club, is trying to revive the old spirit and interest. A membership drive is in progress, and it is earnestly hoped that soon the club will once more become a source of fun and pleasure for all the youth of the community.
